Failure to pay on time may result in termination of services. $35 will be added to all returned checks. Courage Cheer and Dance may seek collection of fees: clients may be required to pay termination fee, any collection cost, and attorney fees incurred by Courage Cheer and Dance to collect this amount. Interest fee for unpaid tuition is set at 15% per month. If Courage Cheer and Dance elects, it may immediately terminate all services provided by it including but not limited to the immediate dismissal of the children from it's facility. Courage Cheer and Dance may also prosecute under the Texas Penal code, Section 31.04-Theft of services.

By signing below I am stating that I understand and agree to the terms of the above fee agreement. I agree to pay all the fees, interest, and late fees, as stated above and any and all attorney fees, court costs, and collection costs related to the collection of my account. I understand that I can be prosecuted under the Texas Penal Code Section 31.04 Theft of services
